DENOUNCES FALSEHOOD

Morrow Shows Where He Got Campaign Funds.

Not One Dollar Furnished By Anyone Connected With Liquor.

Somerset, Ky., July 24.—Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor upon being interviewed concerning a statement made by Mayor Buschmeyer, of Louisville, which appeared in the Evening Post of July 23 regarding the race for Governor, said tonight:

"My attention has been called to the statement of Mayor Buschmeyer in which he has seen fit to use the following language: 'There is no contest in the Republican party. E. P. Morrow, the choice of a Republican brewer at Newport, and a Republican distiller at Owensboro, has that nomination secure, thanks to the support of a well financed campaign committee, whose affairs were managed by Phil W. Grinstead, late of the American School Company, a most adroit politician.'"

Has No Committee.

"I have had no campaign committee. I have no campaign headquarters save the law office in the town where I live. My campaign fund has been so pitifully small that I am ashamed to state its amount when I realize the tremendous expenditures of money which has been and is now being made by Democratic candidates.

"The total of all contributions to my campaign fund from every source has been the tremendous sum of eight hundred and ten dollars. This sum came from the following sources of which I am not ashamed but very proud, because, small as it is, it represents the affection of those who have known me best through my life:

Where Money Came From.

"From my brother, W. B. Morrow, three hundred dollars; from another brother, schoolmates and personal friends in Pulaski county, two hundred and fifty dollars, the largest contribution being twenty five dollars; from schoolmates and personal friends in Danville and Lexington, regardless of party, two hundred and sixty dollars.

"This meager sum has been expended for postage, telephone, telegraph and advertising. My traveling expenses I have borne myself. Not a single penny has been given or used for me either directly or indirectly by any person connected with the distilling or brewer interest. Phil Grinstead has neither directly or indirectly had anything whatever to do with the management of my campaign or the financing of the same, nor has any other person connected in any way with the distilling business.

How Campaign Was Managed.

"My campaign has been managed in my absence by my brother, W. B. Morrow, with the assistance of the regular stenographer in my office, Mr. Otis Waddle, assisted by two young men, my personal friends, who without pay have helped to prepare for the mails the few letters which I was able to send out.

"My nomination has been made certain by the overwhelming and spontaneous sentiment coming from the rank and file of the Republican and Progressive parties, without regard to any business or interest unbribed and unbought.

"While it is humiliating to me to be compelled to state the meagerness of my campaign fund, yet to me it is a source of the deepest satisfaction that when the nomination of my party comes to me, my outstretched hand shall be clean to take and hold it, and my heart will be glad because my conscience will be clear."

State Aid Road.

Owensboro, Ky., July 26.—Beginning at Thurston and going four and seventy-six hundredth miles almost to Yelvington, Martin & Martin, contractors of Evansville, Ind., began work this morning on the first State-aid road in Western Kentucky. The contract, let by the Davies Fiscal Court several days ago, was approved by the State Road Commissioner. The road is to be ten-foot macadam and is to be constructed under the supervision of an engineer from the State Road Department. There will be three large steel bridges erected and the cost is to be $26,500, half to be paid by the State. The road is known as the Owensboro-Hawesville road, and is the first inter-county seat roadway to be constructed.

U. S. To Take Definite Step to Settle Trouble in Mexico.

Washington, July 26.—A definite step toward a settlement of the Mexican problem will be taken by the United States in the near future. Definite announcement to this effect was made today by the state department, through the nature of the contemplated action has not yet been disclosed. President Wilson is understood to be revolving several suggested courses in his mind. His decision will not be known until his return to Washington.

His most probable course, it was reported tonight, would be to urge Carranza for the last time to confer with the other factions relative to peace. Should Carranza again refuse, it is said an effort may be made to assemble the other Mexican leaders who will represent a majority of the people. The convention would arrange for a constitutional convention which would arrange for the erection of a government which the United States would recognize and help maintain.

Pike Contract Let.

Bids were opened Tuesday by the Ohio County Fiscal Court for the construction of 2 1/2 miles of pike on the Hartford and Centertown road. There were four bids, but Smith & Crahan, of Breckenridge county, were found to have the lowest bid. After some changes in their bid which materially reduced the cost, the court accepted the bid and entered into contract with them. The amount to be expended will be $17,000. A new bridge across Muddy creek is also provided for, the present one being declared unsafe by the engineer representing the State. The State pays one-half of the entire sum to be expended. This line will eventually be the connecting road with Greenville in the inter-county seat program mapped out by the State and this section is probably the most costly part of it, because of necessary levying to get above high water and straightening the road at one point.

Death of E. P. Barnett.

Elijah P. Barnett died Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Joseph Thomason on lower No Creek, of dropsy. He had been an invalid for thirty years, caused by a horse falling upon him. His fatal illness lasted about six weeks. He was a son of Robert E. and Amanda Barnett, both of whom have been dead many years. He was 64 years of age.

The funeral services were conducted at Alexander grave yard by Rev. R. D. Bennett Monday morning at 10 o'clock, after which the burial took place there.

Mr. Barnett was highly educated and seemingly had a bright future before him as a young man when the accident mentioned overtook him, blasting all his plans in life. He was a surveyor of Ohio county one term and gave splendid satisfaction as an official. Peace to his ashes.

Starts Tour of Graves.

Mayfield, Ky., July 27.—Fresh from an ovation in Murray that evidently made him superior to the exhausting efforts of two speeches in an afternoon, H. V. McChesney arrived here last night and found Mayfield ready to welcome his message to Democracy with the same responsive spirit. A crowd that an average Saturday night could not duplicate, gathered in the county seat of Graves, and some 800 people tried to crowd their way into the circuit court room to hear. Many had to turn away for lack of room. He was introduced by Hon. M. D. Hollifield. Tomorrow McChesney will tour the county, making four speeches during the day.

OTTO C. MARTIN
Hartford, Kentucky, July 30, 1915.

To the Republicans of Ohio County:

I would be glad to meet all of you between now and the primary election, August 7th, but in that short time it will be impossible for me to do so. I take this method of submitting finally my claims for the Republican nomination for Circuit Court Clerk.

I feel that I am well qualified for this position, having had considerable experience in the courts and know well the duties that would be required of your Circuit Court Clerk, and if nominated and elected to this high office I assure you I will use all means within my power to discharge the duties of the office in such a way and manner as to meet with the approval of the people of this county; that during the term of office you will have no reason to regret having supported me for this position.

I am a Republican and have used all honorable means to secure the election of the Republican ticket in national, state and county elections. My people are all Republicans and have always supported the nominees of our party and used their influence to secure the election of our candidates. If I should be nominated for this office I will make an active canvass of the county between now and the regular election in November, and use all honorable means to secure my election and the election of our ticket this fall.

I was born and reared on a farm and my sympathy has always been with and for the farmers and laboring class.

Thanking each and every one of you who have given me your support and influence in this campaign and trusting that I will receive it on August 7th, I beg to assure you that I have nothing but the kindest feelings for those who are supporting my worthy opponents, either of whom, if nominated would have my loyal support.

Again thanking you for your support and influence and hoping that I may have a continuance of same, I beg to remain,

Yours Very Respectfully,
OTTO C. MARTIN.

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED FOR NASHVILLE

Robert Vaughn Put in Charge of Affairs of Tennessee Capital.

Nashville, Tenn., July 27.—Chancellor Allison today appointed Robert Vaughn, a master in chancery, receiver for the city of Nashville. At noon Judge Matthews, in the Circuit Court, in response to proceedings under Tennessee's new "ouster law," suspended from office Mayor Hilary E. Hovaw and Commissioners Robert Elliott and Lile Andrews.

Andrews recently was dismissed by the City Commission. He and Controller Miles Burns, Treasurer W. H. West are under indictment in connection with the disappearance of certain books and records from the office of Controller. West's whereabouts are unknown. An audit and survey of the city's books is being conducted as a result of various charges of bad management and irregularities. Out of the charges developed petitions for receivership and ouster.

It is said that the city's credit and financial standing are not involved, the movement being directed only against officials for alleged misconduct.

Fair For Ohio County.

The Ohio County Fair Company has decided to give a three days fair at Hartford this year. The date will be Sept. 16, 17 and 18.

Special attractions are being arranged and the premium list will be larger and better than ever.

URGES REPUBLICANS VOTE IN PRIMARY

County Chairman Kirk Addresses Appeal to Party Men.

Hartford, Ky., July 30, 1915
To the Republican voters of Ohio County:

As our Primary Election approaches I feel that we ought to get interested and do our best to make a good strong showing for our party. If there was ever a year important to the Republicans of Kentucky, it is this one, and to make a good showing in the primary will be a long step toward success in November.

We have several good strong candidates for State and District offices who, by reason of the fact that they have no opponents, are already nominated under our Primary Election law, and have received their commissions as nominees for their respective offices. They are now fullfledged candidates for election and are highly qualified for the positions which they seek. Among them are our fellow townsmen, C. E. Smith for Commonwealth's Attorney, C. M. Barnett for Railroad Commissioner; also Mr. R. W. Slack, of Owensboro, for Circuit Judge of this district, and Thomas B. Gregor for Attorney General. The nomination of Hon. E. P. Morrow for Governor seems absolutely assured, and that of R. P. Green for State Superintendent of Public Instruction is a certainty, all of his opposition having withdrawn.

This will be our opportunity to select one of the strongest state tickets we have ever had to vote for in November. We have a good list of candidates to choose from.

It is earnestly hoped that every Republican voter will interest himself in this Primary and do his full duty on August 7.

Yours Very Respectfully,
A. D. KIRK, Chairman
Republican Ex. Com.

Death of Dr. Elgin.

Dr. W. R. Elgin died in New Orleans Monday morning. His brother Mr. Virgil C. Elgin was notified by telephone and left at once for Hopkinsville, the home of his father, Rev. Virgil Elgin, where the interment took place.

Rev. Elgin was four years pastor of Hartford Methodist church and has a host of friends here who are in deep sympathy with the family in their sad bereavement.

Later—it is learned that Dr. Elgin fell through an open window, accidentally from a third story and was killed instantly.

Death of "Aunt Gabe" Maddox.

Gabe R. Maddox, wife of our townsman J. T. Maddox Jr., died on Monday July 19th at 5 o'clock of kidney trouble and brights disease of which she had suffered since early in 1914.

"Aunt Gabe" as she was familiarly called by both old and young was the second daughter of W. I. and Nancy Ann Adkins both now deceased. She was born in Greenville Ky., on April 1st 1857, thereby making her 58 years, three months, and 18 days old.

When quite old her parents moved to Butler county after remaining here some few years they bought and moved to a farm near Cool Springs church where they lived until called to the other shore. At the age of 15 she united with the baptist church at Cool Springs under the ministry of Rev. Jas Austin where she remained a constant and faithful member until she was called to the great beyond. She was married to Thomas Maddox Jr., son of Thomas and Delila Maddox, in May 1890, no children being born to their union. She leaves 3 brothers, B. F. Adkins of the McHenry Lumber and Implement Co., Ralph and a half brother Wm. of Greenville, Ky., and four sisters, Mrs. Artha Adkins Smith, Mrs. Laura Maddox of this county and Janie Adkins of Greenville, Ky., and Mrs. Shelia Spolling of Wadood, Shelby county.

The funeral services were held at Cool Springs church, Rev. Hiram Brown preaching the funeral after which the remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery adjoining, among a large crowd of friends and relatives.

Peace to her ashes.

Walter M. Wright Suicides.

Tuesday's Louisville Times has the following account of the suicide of Mr. Walter M. Wright, who married Miss Daisy Stevens, daughter of Mr. Oscar Stevens, Beaver Dam, and who is well known there.

Two months ago Walter M. Wright forty-four years of age, a widely-known traveling salesman for a New York firm, purchased a revolver to protect his home against further visits of thieves after considerable jewelry had been stolen from the residence, 708 Rubel avenue. Several days ago he discussed with his wife the horror of suicide. He kept the revolver under the pillow of his bed. When he was taken ill Mrs. Wright sought for the pistol from the bed, but he objected, saying that they slept with the windows open and a thief might enter.

This afternoon, while delirious, he placed the muzzle of the revolver to his right temple and pulled the trigger. The bullet plowed through his brain and came out of the left temple. There is no hope for his recovery.

Mr. Wright had not been well for a month or more and for five days had a fever of 104. He had been delirious most of Monday and today. Mrs. Wright left his sick room to crack ice for his head. She heard a noise, sounding as if someone had fallen. It was the muffled pistol shot. Her husband was in bed, blood flowing from the wound in his head. She hurriedly summoned Drs. L. W. and Oscar Bloch.

Later—Mr. Wright died Tuesday night.

GERMANY ANSWERS NOTE

Sends Another American Vessel to Ocean Bottom.

President Wilson Has no Com- ment to Make on Sinking of Leelanaw.

London, July 26.—Only meager accounts of the sinking of the steamer Leelanaw have reached here, but it is clear ample warning was given the crew, they even being given time to collect part of their effects.

London, July 26.—The American steamship Leelanaw, from Archangel July 8, for Belfast with a cargo of flax, was sunk Sunday by a German submarine off the northwest coast of Scotland. All the members of the crew of the Leelanaw were saved. They were brought into Kirkwall in their own boats.

The steamer left New York May 17, with a cargo of cotton consigned to Russia by way of Gothenburg. The vessel was detained at Kirkwall while inquiries were made as to the possibility of getting her cargo to Russia, as Sweden forbids the export of cotton. The ship was released June 26, with permission to proceed to Archangel, where the cotton was discharged and a cargo of flax was loaded for Belfast.

No details of the torpedoing of the Leelanaw have been received beyond a message stating that the crew had been safely landed at Kirkwall, Scotland, from which place they notified the American consul at Dundee of the sinking of the vessel.

A dispatch from Kirkwall to the Central News Agency says that after the members of the crew left the Leelanaw about a dozen shots were fired at the steamer. They failed to sink her, however, and she was ultimately sent to the bottom by a torpedo.

The members of the crew were taken aboard the submarine, the dispatch adds, and were well treated. When in sight of the Orkney Islands the men were ordered to return to their boats and the submarine disappeared.

The Leelanaw was owned by the Harby Steamship company, of New York. She was formerly called the Earnwell. She was 280 feet long and of 1,924 gross tons. She left Galveston May 5 and New York May 17 with a cargo of cotton for Archangel. Early in June she was detained by the British authorities at Kirkwall. This action was taken because her cargo, although destined for Russia, was consigned by way of Gothenburg, Sweden, which country forbids the export of cotton. Having discharged her cargo at Archangel, it is evident that the Leelanaw was returning from Archangel when she was sunk.

McCreary For McDermott.

Frankfort, Ky., July 28.—The political stock of E. J. McDermott today took a big jump when Gov. McCreary declared for him. "I am going to vote for Mr. McDermott for the Democratic nomination for Governor," said Gov. McCreary, when he was asked today if he had made up his mind whom he would support. Supporters of McDermott here are jubilant tonight. They say that McDermott is gaining so fast that Gov. McCreary could not stay out of the band wagon any longer.

Three Thousand People.

Murray, Ky., July 27.—The biggest crowd ever assembled here at a political speaking greeted H. V. McChesney, when he spoke here yesterday afternoon. He was billed to speak in the big Calloway county court house but the crowd was so large that he cut short his speech inside and went to the court house steps, where he addressed over 3,000 people that had gathered in front of the building and clamored for him to speak to them outside.

McChesney's friends since the ovation he received are estimating his majority in this county at more than 2,000.
